DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-20, 41, 46-49, and 54-57 are drawn to a method of reducing disease in a crop infected with at least one pathogen comprising providing a herbicide resistant crop and treating the crop with glyphosate.

Group II, claim(s) 21-40 are drawn to a method for reducing disease on a wheat crop with at least one pathogen comprising providing a herbicide resistant wheat crop and treating the crop with a herbicide.

Group III, claim(s) 42-43 and 50-51 are drawn to a method of inhibiting or treating soy rust in a glyphosate resistant soybean crop, comprising the step of treating a glyphosate resistant soybean crop with glyphosate.

Group VI, claim(s) 44-45 and 52-53 are drawn to a method of inhibiting or treating strip rust in a glyphosate resistant soybean crop, comprising the step of treating a glyphosate resistant soybean crop with glyphosate

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-VI do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The technical feature linking the groups is the treatment of the infected crops with glyphosate. However, prior art reference of record, Sanogo et al., (Effects of herbicides on Fusarium solani and the development of SDS in glyphosate-tolerant soybean), 2000, already teach the treatment of Fusarium solani and Sudden Death Syndrome in glyphosate tolerant soybeans with glyphosate. Therefore, there is lack of unity a posteriori because the technical feature linking the species does not define a contribution over the prior art.

3. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

(a) fungal pathogens selected from Rhizoctonia, Gaeumannomyces, Phakopsora or Puccinia. Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single fungal pathogen selected from Rhizoctonia, Gaeumannomyces, Phakopsora or Puccinia, to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

4. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Group I, claim(s) 1-20, 41, 46-49, and 54-57.
Group II, claim(s) 21-40.
Group III, claim(s) 42-43 and 50-51.
Group VI, claim(s) 44-45 and 52-53.

The following claim(s) are generic: none.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The technical feature linking the groups is the treatment of the infected crops with glyphosate. However, prior art reference of record, Sanogo et al., (Effects of herbicides on Fusarium solani and the development of SDS in glyphosate-tolerant soybean), 2000, already teach the treatment of Fusarium solani and Sudden Death Syndrome in glyphosate tolerant soybeans with glyphosate. Therefore, there is lack of unity a posteriori because the technical feature linking the species does not define a contribution over the prior art.

Telephone Election

5. A telephone call was made to Attorney Michael E. Whitman on September 29, 2009 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
